

FAASTeam presents:

So You're Married to a Pilot

We're all looking for ways to make flying safer and more enjoyable, when flying with someone we are sharing our lives with. This seminar aims to improve cockpit safety and marital health by improving understanding between pilots and their spouses/significant others. We will delve into the issues that help make flying as a couple safer and more enjoyable. A panel of pilots and spouses join CFI Dan Dyer for this fun, informative and interactive session. For pilots, we will help you recognize and understand the right seat experience. For passengers, we will help you understand the difference between a high workload time and when it's okay to chat, as well as ways to become more helpful in the cockpit. Who knows - you may even decide to take an upcoming co-pilot course! We invite pilots of all levels, spouses, significant others, and regular passengers to attend. The event will consist of a moderated panel discussion with some audience participation that will last about an hour, followed by a fun mini-mixer with drinks and snacks for everyone to get to know each other a little bit better. The moderator, Dan Dyer, is pilot married to a non-pilot. During the day he is Chief Pilot of San Carlos Flight Center and has been instructing for 11 years, first in helicopter and now in airplanes. He has almost 4,000 flight hours and
